RESIDENTIAL – PERMIT REQUIREMENTS FOR ALTERNATE ENERGY
This is for residential installation of alternate energy system only. New construction requires additional fees/permits.

Homeowner Installing System

Will system be tied to the grid?

- NO
  - I system under 90 volts?
    - YES
      - Is home for owner’s personal use & not intended for rental or resale?
        - YES
          - Homeowner can install – Permit Required.
        - NO
          - Electrical Contractor is required to do the work – Permit Required
    - NO
      - Homeowner would apply for an electrical permit for single family interior/exterior wire or rewire, select option (h) & check alternate energy type (solar, wind or hydro). This allows the owner to assemble and install the system. Fee: $110

Installer - Not Electrical Contractor

Will system be tied to the grid?

- NO
  - I system under 90 volts?
    - YES
      - Contractor can install – Permit Required.
    - NO
      - Contractor would apply for an electrical permit for single family interior/exterior wire or rewire, select option (i) & check alternate energy type (solar, wind or hydro). This allows the contractor to assemble and install the system. Fee: $110

Licensed Electrical Contractor

Will system be tied to the grid?

- NO
  - I system under 90 volts?
    - YES
      - Electrical Contractor is required to do the work – Permit Required
    - NO
      - Electrical Contractor must do the wiring to connect the generator to the grid. Fee: $110

ALL COMMERCIAL PROJECTS REQUIRE AN ELECTRICAL CONTRACTOR TO OBTAIN PERMITS